

hair boutique india

wholesale human hair suppliers

We started off our journey in 1970s as a small scale cottage business ran by our grandfather. Since then our family is involved with human hair procurement, processing and sales for the last 4 decades. Now, we are the third generation of our family involved in the hair business.

With all the expertise and skill in hair industry, we decided to create our own brand and market the best quality hair to the international customers direct from India. This is how hairboutiqueindia.com was launched. This company is created with one thought in our mind “Natural Virgin Hair at the Best Price” .

With the backing of hair industry expertise and advancement in technology, we'll continue to create a portfolio of hair extensions catering to the needs of customers worldwide.

We procure only virgin human hair taken from single head and our hair filter team verifies & filters them to ensure our promise Natural Virgin Hair. Our manufacturing team uses indigenous techniques to give a clean, hygienic and ready to use hair extensions preserving the originality. Customers can purchase virgin hairs of all type (curly, straight and wavy) which can be used as is / customized per need.

Hair Boutique India has taken utmost care of the hair from the day its shaved off till the day its shipped.

We spend more effort and resource with our research team and what you see as products in hairboutiqueindia.com are result of those. Our products are outcome of our family heritage combined with the revolutionary research.

Kind Regards, Suresh S
